

Information for a Press Release

The week of January 28, 2007 is Catholic Schools Week and at St. Joseph School, in Cold Spring, the students and faculty will be celebrating: “Catholic School: The Good News in Education”. Parish Day, on Sunday, kicks off the week with a pancake breakfast sponsored by the Foresters. Monday is Student Day. They enjoy a day of being out of uniform day, no homework and the favorite chicken nuggets for lunch!! Tuesday is Parent Appreciation Day and parents/guardians are invited to have lunch with their children. The parking lot is overflowing, the local food establishments are hopping, but there are hundreds of smiling faces. Lunchtime is between 12 and 1 on Tuesday. Families are assigned “lunch rooms” by last names: the Gym, Activity Center, Kelley Hall or Memorial Hall. Wednesday is School Community day, where student representatives attend a special Liturgy at the Cathedral and the students write thank you notes to the organizations and groups of the school and parish community. Thursday is Faculty and Staff day. The Board of Education presents all members of the faculty and staff with gifts of appreciation and the PTO provides a special luncheon. The week is closed out on Friday with Spirit Day. St. Joseph School Spirit is celebrated with an all school mass, a blue and white out of uniform day, ice cream sundaes and the annual volleyball game between the faculty/staff and 8th grade students. The game will be played from 1:30 – 2:30 in the gym.

Come join St. Joseph students, faculty and family to celebrate this national event!
